Universities is following student centric policy to cater the two most important issues, first is related to an independent student body which can raise academic and administrative issues related to student and second is to find the amicable solutions with University Authorities.